Dear Wooden Family and Friends,

The Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC) is pleased to announce the granting of a six-year term of accreditation to John R. Wooden High School. Many individuals contributed to the WASC accreditation process, and the concentrated work of the entire campus community assured the positive outcome. Thank you to all who contributed their time and efforts.

John R. Wooden High School received high recognition for:

- ◆ Highly qualified teachers
- ◆ A strong curriculum based on state standards
- ◆ A variety of learning experiences for students
- ◆ Active parent, alumni, community, and student involvement
- ◆ School culture characterized by trust, professionalism and continuous school improvement

Again, congratulations on successfully achieving a full term of accreditation. Maintaining an effective quality program for students in the face of today's challenges is a truly commendable feat. Your contributions to making John R. Wooden High School an exemplary academic environment have been recognized.

Respectfully,

Jason Garrison
Principal
